

15 – Guitar Worship - 15

- You noticed that in the first 2 lines of the chorus we only used the chord of E.

E

Let me know the Kisses of Your Mouth, let me feel Your warm Embrace

Let me smell the Fragrance of Your Touch, let me see Your Lovely Face

To make it sound more interesting we are going to work with the chord of E.

- We will add the fourth tone to the E chord which is a (a is not a chord or a key, it is just the fourth tone of the E chord): e f# g# a b c# d# e.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 1

- As you can see in below picture, the finger in the first space on the G string (g#) moves 1 space up and we no longer play the tone g#, but the tone a.

E E4 E
 Let me know the Kisses of Your Mouth, let me feel Your warm Embrace
E4 E E4 E
 Let me smell the Fragrance of Your Touch, let me see Your lovely Face

- Sing and strum the chorus with the added E4 and you will hear it.
- The same method we can apply to the A chord.
In this case we use the A2 chord.

In the chord of A2, the second note is b:

a b c# d# e f# g# a,
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 1

- The second string is the B string. When we let go of our third finger, we hear the bare string that sounds like a b. Now we have the A2 chord.

- Remember to strum the chords precisely at the words above where they show.

Now let's sing and play this same song again with the extra chords of E4 and A2!
